Recruitment of Peer Academic Counsellors (PAC) 2007-8

Senior students are needed to work as Peer Academic Counsellors to help junior students in academic matters.

Peer Academic Counsellors’ responsibilities
1. Peer Academic Counsellors will take shifts (2-4 hrs per week) in managing a study room for junior students, who may seek help in homework or other academic problems. The study room (G25A) is open every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 5pm till 7pm.
2. In special cases, Peer Academic Counsellors may be asked to take up (on a mutually agreed basis) one-to-one tutoring of individual students.

Who are eligible to apply?
Undergraduate physics students who have completed at least 3 semesters of study are eligible to apply. We look for students who are compassionate towards fellow students and enjoy helping others. Successful candidates should have good academic records and communication skills.

How about rewards?
Other than the joy of helping fellow students, each Peer Academic Counsellor will be awarded a stipend of HK$50 per hour and a certificate of appreciation by the department.
